Thanks for the clarification - (and there was no need for the apology, I just wanted to check on details!).

I have attached both the full presentation and the Word document with the causation discussion. However I should point out to you that you actually have already posted both of these on the WSA folder!

Let me know if you need anything else and thanks again for your rapid response to my questions.

with kind regards,

Ruth

The full causation consensus presentation is fine. I know that it has already been cleared by Legal. I will put the .pdf version on the shared folder. These will be source documents for WSA members when/if they have a presentation to prepare on the various projects going on within WSA. Hope this clarifies the request for you. Sorry to have caught you "off guard."

Thanks again and I hope all is well!

Hi Loreen -

Could you let me know what a "Reference Presentation" is? I have the causation consensus presentation in full, and I think there are shorter versions of it that have been incorporated in various other presentations but I do not have a clue as to which one you require and for what purpose!

with kind regards,

Ruth
